

State of Wisconsin \

Department of Industry, Labor and Human Relations

August 21, 1987

WORKER'S COMPENSATION DIVISION

201 E. Washington Avenue
P.O. Box 7901
Madison, Wisconsin 53707
Madison (608) 266-1340
Milwaukee (414) 224-4382

Attorney Richard A. Fortune
Schoone, McManus, Hankel,
Ware & Fortune, S.C.
P.O. Box 97
Racine, WI 53401-0097

Dear Mr. Fortune:

WC CLAIM NO: 85 10684
INJURY DATE: 02/10/85
EMPLOYEE: [REDACTED]
EMPLOYER: WKTY WSPL Radio
INSURER NO: 094CBAX47178

IF YOU CALL OR WRITE US
PLEASE USE WC CLAIM NO.

If the witnesses have not acutally had to incur the expenses which you tendered to them with the first subpoena, you are not required to give them a second check for expenses. On the other hand, those subpoenas must be reissued if they are to have a binding force. You may request the witnesses to appear by letter, but if they fail to appear, I don't see how they could be found in contempt if you do not resubpoena them.

Sincerely,

Helen L. Schott
Administrative Law Judge

HLS:TH1008

cc: Attorney David H. Nispel
Birnbaum, Marcou & Nispel
P.O. Box 2938
La Crosse, WI 54602-2938

RECEIVED
AUG 22 1987
MILWAUKEE