Application
Application reported claim, file already exists. Records Management person reopens, adds application event
Application, reported claim, Records Management litigates and generates labels for files.
Application claim not reported, Claims opens up a claim, litigates and generates labels for file.
Records management prints all imaged documents and sets up file
Claims Monitoring sets up file
HEARINGS UNIT
Application came in with Certificate of readiness, application served and sent to Calendar to process certification of readiness. 60-day grace period before scheduling.
File to Applications to serve application. Not Ready Hearing
Claimant not represented, application served and made Not Ready for Pre-hearing.
Case Scheduled for Hearing
File to litigated filing to await certification of readiness.
File to ADR Dispute resolution Reported claims
File to ADR Dispute resolution not-reported
Hearing Held Order written ALJ
Hearing Settled Compromised
Can't resolve Pre-hearing Scheduled and Held
File check IN Legal
Case Closed
Order Written ALJ
Case Scheduled for Hearing
Appealed to LIRC
Case Closed
Hearing held Order written, case closed ALJ
Appealed to Court
File Check In Legal
Appealed to LIRC
Claimant now Represented, must go Through Cor Process